What is the LHS Book Club?

The LHS Book Club was formed to foster a love of reading with the hope that members will become lifelong readers. The Book Club invites students to read adolescent and adult literature rich with events, characters, conflicts, and themes worthy of discussion.

Members of the club meet approximately once a month to share insights about the selection. As a group, club members also determine books that were not selected by the advisors. Members may read all of the novel choices or select only those of personal interest.

November-December 2009 Selection

The Runaway Jury by John Grisham

“So how’s jury service?” Nicholas asked.

“Overrated.”

“Did anyone attempt to bribe you last night?”

“No. You?”

A lawsuit against a big tobacco company. A lawyer who specializes in jury selection. A young woman who proves that she can control the jury’s behavior. What do these have in common? John Grisham’s novel, The Runaway Jury! Please stop by the Reading Lab to check out the Book Club’s next novel. New members are always welcome.

LHS Book Club Guidelines:

- ✓ Respect and appreciate all viewpoints and show tolerance of different perspectives.
- ✓ Listen to members without interruption or criticism.
- ✓ Invite others to share.
- ✓ Share a love of reading with others.

Interested in joining?

No purchase is necessary to be a member of the Book Club. Books are available to check out or purchase in the Reading Lab, Room 230.

The time and location for the book discussions vary. Students should listen carefully to the morning announcements for information regarding the Book Club.

Questions? See Mrs. Wisen in the Reading Lab (Room 230) or Mrs. Schmitt in Room 232.
