With AP® Exams about a month away, encourage AP teachers and students to take advantage of AP Daily: Practice Sessions—a video resource designed to help students review course content and practice applying what they've learned throughout the school year.

These videos will be available in about one week, on Monday, April 22, on both AP Classroom and YouTube.

AP Daily: Practice Sessions highlight free-response and multiple-choice questions, with the aim of helping students get familiar with the types of questions they'll see on their AP Exam(s).

Every video will be approximately 15 minutes long and remain accessible through the AP Exam administration so that students can watch at times that work best for them. Learn more about how AP Daily: Practice Sessions, as well as other AP Daily videos, can help students prepare for exam day.
