February is Teen Dating Violence Awareness and Prevention month. Did you know that 20% of Wisconsin teens have experienced some form of dating violence? Members of Interact/Cool 2 Be Kind will have a table set up at lunch all week to raise money for The Family Center and their staff's efforts to educate about violence prevention and support victims of domestic abuse. You can purchase a creamsicle sucker for $1.00 or buy 50-cent raffle tickets for one of five fleece blankets made by Interact/Cool 2 Be Kind members. All of the blankets have shades of orange in the fabric: masked dinosaurs, campsites, peace signs, mountain landscapes, and chevron patterns. Anyone who participates in wearing something orange on Friday can stop our table at lunch and get one free entry for a tie blanket.

Thank you to the community members and Lincoln High School students and staff who participated in Educators Rising blood drive.
