

LHS Announcements
Tuesday, January 16, 2024

Yesterday commemorated the January 15, 1929 birth of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. King was a civil rights leader, minister, and winner of the 1964 Nobel Peace Prize. Born in Atlanta, Georgia, he was assassinated April 4, 1968.

Today's Seven Mindsets Quote of the Day:

"There is always light. If only we're brave enough to see it. If only we're brave enough to be it." Amanda Gorman

CONGRATULATIONS to today's pride winners Daley Knoll and Keton Diebel! Please stop in the main office to pick up your prize.

If you are planning on attending Fire On Ice you must have all your detentions and Thursday schools served by Friday February 9th. Any students that receive an out of school suspension January 10th or after are not eligible to attend.

Any student interested in taking Marketing Principles and Work Experience for next year should stop in room 144 or 146 to see Ms. Tessmer or Mr. Davis.

Sophomores - Fire on Ice is just around the corner, which means it's time to elect an Ice Prince and Princess. Nomination forms for Ice Prince/Princess are in the office and are due back by Friday, January 26th.

Starting today during lunches the kitchen will be offering bulk milk in place of cartons of milk. The milk dispensers will be at the end of the serving lines.

The moment has arrived to sign up for our spring musical auditions for MY FAIR LADY. Go to the doors leading to the music wing by the choir room to check out the earliest time slot and sign your name. We are looking for singers, actors and dancers. Anyone can audition - no experience is necessary. Need further info? Check out the LHS Theatre website and social media platforms or you can contact Mrs Danke, Mr Krommenakker or Mrs Stoffel. Seniors from previous musicals state they wish they started this sooner so grab a friend and sign up today!

There will be no Floss Club tonight. The opposing team has forfeited. We will continue our quest for an 18th straight state championship next Monday at 2:57 in room 231. In the meantime, remember "you're at a loss unless you floss."

All French students interested in participating in a French speaking contest, registration starts today in room 249. Stop to pick up your packet information.

All DECA members that will be attending DECA State need to attend an informational meeting during RPT on Thursday, January 18th in room 216.

Attention Seniors: Please stop in the main office to approve your picture and the spelling of your name for the yearbook. You have until tomorrow to do this.
