Today's Seven Mindsets Quote of the Day:

"Giving is not just about making a donation, it's about making a difference." Kathy Calvin

CONGRATULATIONS to today's pride winner Brandon Hyde! Please stop in the main office to pick up your prize.

The freedom to walk, to talk, to run and play, to laugh, to hug, to even to breathe...Each day these freedoms are taken away from individuals with muscular dystrophy, ALS, and related diseases that weaken muscle strength and limit mobility. With your generosity, we can work to change this. Today in The Wolf Den, $1 of every slushy purchased will be donated to the Muscular Dystrophy Association. Stop in The Wolf Den to support this great cause!

Get ready to deck the halls and spread some holiday cheer! It's the 5th Annual HOSA Deck the Halls - Door Decorating Competition! This year, we're diving into the magic of iconic holiday movies. Unleash your creativity and transform your RPT door into a festive masterpiece that captures the spirit of your favorite seasonal films. Mark your calendars! Decorating kicks off on Monday, November 27th, and you have until December 19th to turn your door into a winter wonderland. Whether you're inspired by "Elf," "Home Alone," or any other classic, let your imagination run wild! The stakes are high! The winning room will not only claim the prestigious traveling trophy but will also be showered with delicious cookies to sweeten the victory. Will Mrs. Moser's RPT keep the trophy for another year or will another room become victorious? Winners will be announced on Friday, December 22nd, so make sure your creation stands out and dazzles our judges! Don't miss out on the chance to showcase your holiday spirit and bring joy to the entire LHS building! Let the festivities begin, and may the most enchanting door win!

Your award winning LHS Theatre Dept has returned from State bringing back Critics Choice, Outstanding Ensemble, Outstanding Director, Outstanding Technical and 4 Acting Awards to Brandon Winter, Ella Panter, Dayne Tebo and Laney Fuchs. Congrats and thanks to all of the cast and crew of THE ART OF BEING VAGUE.

November is the perfect month to show gratitude and let others know that we care, and members of Interact/Cool 2 Be Kind would like to help you do that! Between now and the last day of the trimester, ALL students can order ONE free message of gratitude or support to be sent to another student or staff member of their choice. There is no cost involved, but because we are covering the costs for a school with about 1,400 hundred students, we will make sure that an individual only receives one card. By mid-December, our members will assemble the cards and deliver them to RPTs. To participate, check your email for a message from our advisor, Mrs. Kozlowski, and fill out the Google Form linked in that message. In that form, you will be able to see and choose from eight different options!

Attention Seniors: your senior yearbook portrait is due by November 30. Please remember to submit only a head shot without any hands or props in the picture.

HOSA members who were missing pies or others who have not received them, please meet Mrs. J in her classroom after school to pick them up.

Reminder to all French club members our November meeting will be on Tuesday November 21st during RPT in room 249 Make sure to bring your design for the T-shirt contest. Light breakfast will be provided. International students are welcome to join us.

The detention room will not be open during any lunches tomorrow. Please plan accordingly.

Students with privileges, please remember that Thursday, November 30th is your last day to use your first trimester privileges. Second trimester privileges will be handed out sometime within the first 2 weeks of the second trimester.
