Today's Seven Mindsets Quote of the Day:

"Aim to make a difference in someone's life every single day, including your own." Doe Zantamata

CONGRATULATIONS to today's pride winner Princess Price! Please stop in the main office to pick up your Prize.

HOSA members, your pie fundraiser orders and money are due to Mrs. J by this Wednesday.

A big congratulations to the cast and crew of THE ART OF BEING VAGUE who advanced to the State Theatre Festival. Wish them luck at State on Nov 17th!

Thank you all, again, for donating to our collection for World Interact Week. We have mini cupcakes left in the cooler and will be selling them at lunch for 25 cents until they are gone! All collected funds will be added to the total donation we provide through Rotary later this month.

With winter approaching and the temperature plummeting, the need to have warmer clothing is essential. This week Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday Key Club will be collecting any used or new winter apparel during lunch. Additionally, there will be a drop-off site in room 106 (Mr. Daliege's). All items will be donated and distributed to local community members in need.

Bonjour! Happy Monday! It is French National week day 6. If you are wearing Bleu, red, & white today come to Room 249 for your prize. The winner of the "Bisous au chocolat" is Xavier Brooks with 134 guesses. Our Day 7 will have Macaron craft and a Kahoot game during RPT. The link was shared to all staff last night. Thank you all for your support! As always! SUPER FRANÇAIS!

The Salvation Army is in desperate need of bell ringers throughout the community. Bell Ringing occurs Monday through Saturday (no Sundays) from 9 am-7 pm daily, beginning at some locations the second week of November. One-hour shifts are available. If you ring 10 hours or more throughout the season you will receive 2 free pizzas from Tamaracks. You can register online at www.registertoring.com or see Mrs. King for more information.
