Meetings happening right now:
HOSA in room 216

Today we observe Veterans Day. This day commemorates the end of major hostilities of World War I at the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month of 1918. Beginning as Armistice Day in 1919, President Dwight D. Eisenhower signed legislation changing Armistice Day to Veterans Day, "a day dedicated to world peace," in 1954. The day honors all veterans of the U.S. armed services.

Vape fact of the week: Vape cartridges or "pods" can be filled with THC, CBD, or other inhalable drugs.

Today's seven mind set quote:

"Listen to feedback, be open to change, leverage your strengths, accept your limitations, be persistent and never lose sight of your vision." Saskia Sorrosa

Congratulations to today's PRIDE winner, Jessie House! Please stop in the office to pick up your prize.

There is a Lost & Found table that has been set up outside of student services. If you are missing something please check the table. Electronics and jewelry will still be in the office.

If you are interested in joining the Chess Club please stop in the office and pick up a flyer.

Any students who brought a laundry basket or bag to Trick-or-Can should come pick up your belongings from Mr. Davis's room 144, near the Wolf Den. Anything not picked up by the end of this week becomes the property of Mr. Davis.

Attention Juniors! The month of May might seem like a long way away, but it is time to start planning your 2026 Prom! All Juniors are welcome and encouraged to join the Prom Committee. The first meeting will be Friday, November 14th during RPT in room 219 - Mrs. Van Asten's room. We will be starting the process of picking a theme! If you have an opinion, this is your chance to share it!

Congrats to our cast and crew of AND THEN THERE WAS ONE: A SPOOF who advanced to State! There is a chance for everyone to see this State bound play on Friday, Nov 14 at 5:30pm for $5 and also at the 25th Anniversary of the PAC Night at 7:00pm this Saturday, Nov 15 for $5 or for $25 if you want a dinner and a show. We will be available during lunches to help you purchase tickets online. It's 40 minutes of pure laughter! Don't miss this chance and wish us to break legs.

There is a wonderful opportunity to get involved with theatre without the big time restraint! Auditions for the Winter Showcase are Mon, Nov 17 or Tues, Nov 18 in the Green Room (165) after school. Any student who auditions for the cast is put in one of the 3 student written shows. And students who apply for a crew position get to help create the set for these three shows. See us at the table at lunch later this week or ask Mrs Danke or Mr Krommenakker for more details!
