Today's seven mind set quote:

"It's not that I'm so smart, it's just that I stay with problems longer." Albert Einstein

Congratulations to today's PRIDE winner, Summer Khang! Please stop in the office to pick up your prize.

Commons Study Hall students, listen up! YOU are invited to sign into the library during study hall for a fresh and focused environment to complete your end-of-trimester work and to study for tests. Our library is better with YOU in it, so come check it out during your study period!

Please remember that Project SEARCH Kindness T-shirts need to be ordered by TODAY. Thank you to those that have already ordered. https://shop.webko.com/project_search/shop/home

Fun fact: LHS is a community of over 1,400 students and staff members! That's over 1,400 opportunities to send a message of appreciation or encouragement for FREE! The link Interact Advisor Mrs.Kozlowski is conveniently linked in today's edition of daily announcements, so what are you waiting for? Be sure to SCROLL to the bottom of the Google Form to SUBMIT your order; otherwise, we won't receive it! Be the one to make someone else feel seen and appreciated. The order form is open through Friday! (click here)

Today is Support Staff Appreciation Day. We are giving a shout out to those who keep our school running smoothly every single day—our custodians, administrative assistants, aides, paras, kitchen crew, tech team, and so many others. They're the behind-the-scenes superheroes who make sure our school spaces are clean, our lunch is hot, our technology actually works, and that we have what we need to learn and thrive. Your challenge today: Before the end of the day, thank at least one support staff member. A high-five, a smile, a sticky-note thank-you, or even a quick "We appreciate you!" goes a long way.

There is a new volunteer opportunity to share with you. Are you a Junior or Senior? Do you like working with elementary aged students? Do you have your license and a study hall or blended class? If so, our elementary schools are in need of volunteers to help facilitate enrichment activities with our gifted students, able learners and early finishers. The activities range from STEM hands-on activities, art projects, ELA Reading Comprehension, Vocabulary building, and coding with robots. If you are interested in hearing more or volunteering starting in Trimester 2, please contact Ms Bluell at kelly.bluell@wrps.net or stop by her classroom before school in Room 122.

What is a sausage's favorite subject? Grill-ography! Join the German Club at their brat fry this Saturday from 10-2 at Quality Foods East side. Proceeds go to support students going on this year's German trip, as well as other classroom trips and activities.

Any HOSA member who sold pies, please make arrangements to stay after school this Friday to sort your pie order and take them home.

In need of some stocking stuffers? FCCLA will be selling socks for $14 for a 3 pack and $5 for a single pair. These are Black Friday prices, so stop by Room 103 or 105 and get yours today.
