CONGRATULATIONS to today's pride winner Leeland Zuege! Please stop in the main office to pick up your Prize.

If serving a lunch detention make sure you get your lunch FIRST before going into the room. It is first come first serve. Once the seats fill up, they are full. You may not reserve a spot and then go get your lunch. Lunch FIRST then report to the detention room.

Did you know that next week is DECA week? Each day next week there will be dress-up days, a DECA diamond hunt, and lunch activities. Check out our social media for reminders and information. Also, anyone interested in Trick-or-Canning is reminded to sign up on the door of room 144. Already signed up? Don't forget to stop and grab a travel release form from the folder on the sign-up door. Help us start DECA week off right by dressing up in your best business casual attire!

Stop by the yearbook table today in the commons during your lunch to win a chance for a quote in this year's yearbook by guessing the number of Halloween items in a jar.

Students interested in attending the State Theatre Festival who are not part of the one act play must get their permission slips turned in to either Mrs Danke or Mr Krommenakker by TODAY in order to attend. See Canvas, Mrs Danke or Mr Krommenakker for permission slips or questions.

(will be read by student)

Have you ever tried to carry a bucket filled with water for miles in the scorching heat? One wrong step and you'd have to walk back and refill. Lack of clean water is a global crisis. Members of Interact/Cool 2 Be Kind will be collecting funds in RPT beginning on Monday and going until Thursday. The loose change you find while scrounging in a couch cushion has the potential to change the world. Haha, change, get it! The class that raises the most money will earn mini cupcakes for everyone in the grade. Help your class earn the title of "Biggest Wave Maker." Also, stop by our activity table at lunch on Monday to answer trivia and have a chance to play PLINKO for prizes!
