Meetings happening right now:
Educators Rising in room 103
HOSA in room 216

Today we commemorate the life of Mildred Fish Harnack, an American literary historian born in Milwaukee on September 16, 1902. She is the only native-born American known to have been executed by the Gestapo in Nazi Germany on February 16, 1943.

Today's seven mind set quote:
"Believe in yourself and all that you are. Know that there is something inside you that is greater than any obstacle." Christina Saralegui

The baseball open hit scheduled for tomorrow night will be tonight (Tuesday) at 7 PM at the Quadplex.

FCCLA members, Fall Leadership Conference is just around the corner. If you want to learn more about FCCLA. plan to attend. Pick up a permission slip from Ms DeVries-Polman and return by our meeting, September 23.

FCCLA members interested in working the Chefs Dinner, please pick up a permission slip from Ms DeVries-Polman or Ms Mokler. We need at least 5 people on October 4 and October 5. Return your signed permission slip by the end of this week.

Wanna get your workout in? Join us out on the pickleball courts after school Thursday. All students and staff are welcome.

Today is the final day for auditions for our fall show, AND THEN THERE WAS ONE: A SPOOF. They are down in the Green Room (165) after school until done. This one act is entered into the one-act competition and will also be featured at the PAC's 25th Anniversary night. Anyone can audition! Those interested in crew and tech, turn in your applications during the audition times. Contact Mrs Danke or Mr Krommenakker for any questions.
