

353 COMMUNITY RESOURCES

There are a wealth of instructional resources represented by residents of and visitors to the School District. The professional staff is encouraged to utilize these resources, consistent with the mission and goals of the School District.

Site level administrators and program directors are responsible for the utilization, review, and evaluation of community resources within their assigned area of responsibility.

CROSS REF.:           382, School Assemblies
                          811.1, Citizens' Advisory Committees to the Staff
                          881, School-Community Associations

APPROVED:           November 11, 1974

REVISED:   November 1980
                          April 9, 2001