

443.7 STUDENT ACTIVISM

Students may express opinions and ideas, take stands and support policies publicly, privately, orally and in writing. Students may be given this opportunity for expression through established school media. Such expression should not interfere with the educational program or present a safety or health hazard. The students may not use obscenity, slanderous or libelous statements, disruptive tactics or advocate violation of the law or school regulations. They may, however, advocate change of law or school regulations and pursue their advocacy by due process.

CROSS REF.: 372, Student Publications
 440, Student Rights and Responsibilities (Freedom of Expression)

APPROVED: November 11, 1974

REVISED: August 13, 2001